Cubs in the Community

The Chicago Cubs and Cubs Charities community activities and charitable contributions reflect a commitment to be a good neighbor and corporate citizen. These efforts help the club to improve the lives of children and families across our city and surrounding areas. With the help of a great team of players, spouses, front office associates and corporate partners, the Cubs continually strive to be the best in the game on and off the field. Through the Cubs' efforts to be a good neighbor, the organization has invested in neighborhood improvement activities and committed to increasing the team's charitable donations and year-round service involvement.

Cubs Charities provides a vehicle for Cubs fans and partners to donate and support at-risk youth in the areas of health, fitness and education. The funds raised through Cubs Charities events and donations fund Cubs Care, a McCormick Foundation fund, as well as direct community programs including Cubs Scholars and Cubs Charities Diamond Project. In 2017, Cubs Charities gave more than $5 million in charitable contributions.

Fundraising events and programs for 2018 include:

Since 2014, more than 8,800 service hours have been committed.

Cubs Charities Signature Programs
Cubs Charities' signature programs address the needs of Chicago's youth and reflect our commitment to baseball, health, fitness and education in communities throughout Chicago.

Cubs Scholars
Cubs Scholars promotes academic achievement and post-secondary educational advancement through a college preparatory program, mentoring and college scholarships of $5,000 per year upon enrollment in a four-year college or university. Cubs Scholars targets high-potential, Chicago high school students with a demonstrated need. The Cubs Scholars Program rewards both individual students and the nonprofit organizations which support their development by providing college scholarships to high achievers and grants to the nonprofit programs which nominate and support them.

Cubs Scholars participate in Cubs College Prep throughout their senior year of high school and into college. Cubs College Prep partners each Cubs Scholar with a Cubs front office associate mentor who works with them through their senior year and in the transition to college.

In addition to Cubs College Prep, Cubs Charities sponsors each of the Cubs Scholars in a one-year college preparation program offered by Chicago Scholars, an established mentoring program. Chicago Scholars tracks students and offers established curriculum for measuring success and keeping students on track toward college graduation. Cubs Scholars participate in Chicago Scholars' program throughout their four years of college to maximize their chances for college graduation. Currently, 25 Cubs Scholars are participating in Cubs College Prep or attending college. To date, Cubs Charities has pledged $500,000 in scholarship support.

For more information, contact cubsonthemove@cubs.com.

Cubs Charities Diamond Project
The Cubs Charities Diamond Project was launched in April 2014 to expand opportunities for children to play baseball, create or preserve green space in underserved neighborhoods and to foster a love of the game. Through the Diamond Project, Cubs Charities provides funds to nonprofit, neighborhood-based organizations to support capital improvement projects that improve the quality, safety and accessibility of local baseball fields or indoor training facilities with the technical assistance of LISC Chicago. Since 2014, Cubs Charities has funded 45 capital projects.

In 2017, the Cubs Charities Diamond Project awarded more than $870,000 to improve the quality, safety and accessibility of local baseball fields or indoor training facilities, pledged over $100,000 to support baseball and softball programs across Chicago, and provided more than $90,000 in equipment. In 2018, Cubs Charities Diamond Project will again accept applications for grant resources in the following categories:

- Field and Facility Grants: to help finance the resurfacing of baseball fields and to equip gymnasiums or facilities with amenities that will allow for indoor play and baseball skills training during the offseason.
- Program Grants: to support neighborhood leagues.
- Equipment

For more information, contact diamondproject@cubs.com.

Youth and Special Needs Baseball
Through a significant grant from Cubs Charities, McCormick Foundation's Cubs Care supports organizations committed to bringing quality sports programming to the children of Chicago. Each year, more than 6,500 children and young adults participate in sports programs funded by Cubs Care grants. Examples of programs funded through Cubs Care include:

Jr. Wheelchair Cubs— The Cubs support the Rehabilitation Institute of Chicago (RIC) Caring for Kids program which provides introductory sports and recreation programs for children with physical disabilities in the greater Chicagoland area. RIC uses the Cubs Care grants to support its competitive wheelchair softball teams and fund two adaptive summer camps to help promote independence.

Rookie League— A partnership with the Chicago Park District, Rookie League is an introductory league for six to 12 year olds. The league has grown to 80 locations with over 500 teams across Chicago. Each year, more than 4,200 children from neighborhoods throughout the city can participate in the program free of charge.

Inner City Youth Baseball— Inner City Youth Baseball provides recreational activities for more than 640 kids, ages nine to 12, who live in Chicago Housing Authority developments and scattered site housing throughout Chicago. The program is operated in partnership with the Chicago Park District.

Reviving Baseball in the Inner Cities (RBI)— The Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI) program of the Union League Boys & Girls Clubs of Chicago reaches more than 420 teens ages 13 to 18 in Chicago. Grants typically cover all programs costs so the league can provide equipment, uniforms, and instruction at no cost to the participants. In 2017, Cubs RBI grew from 24 to 28 teams.

Cubs RBI Scholars— Launched in 2017, Cubs RBI Scholars is an initiative designed to offer a continuum of academic and student support for high school student athletes who participate in Cubs RBI baseball programs. The primary goal of Cubs RBI Scholars program is to provide tools and resources to RBI athletes to build study habits and skills, promote a culture of learning and create a pathway to college.

RBI Girls Softball— The RBI Girls Softball program aims to expose girls, ages eight through 14, to competitive league play. Operated by the Chicago Park District, the program includes nine teams serving 75 young women.

Special Recreation Programs— The Chicago Park District's Special Recreation programs are geared towards helping children and adults with special needs. These programs include Beep Baseball for the visually impaired, Buddy Baseball for the physically challenged, Deaf & Hard of Hearing Softball for the hearing impaired and Alternative Athletic Conference (AAC) softball for those with learning/behavioral problems. The program serves over 950 participants.

Cubs Special Olympics— Cubs Special Olympics provides year-round sports training and competition for individuals age 6 to 21 old with intellectual disabilities or closely-related developmental disabilities. The program is offered in partnership with Special Children's Charities, Chicago Public Schools and Special Olympics Illinois. In 2017, Cubs Charities donated $100,000 to Special Olympics in honor of 50th Anniversary activities scheduled to be held in Chicago during the summer of 2018.

Play Ball
In 2017, Cubs Charities will partner with Major League Baseball to hold a Play Ball event during spring training in Mesa, Arizona. A special initiative of Commissioner Manfred, Play Ball seeks to introduce youth to the "FUNdamentals" of baseball and softball.

African American Outreach
The Cubs are active in their efforts to strengthen their relationships in the African American community. Each season, the Cubs host Jackie Robinson Day at Wrigley Field and participate in the Bud Billiken back-to-school parade to promote education. In 2017, the Cubs celebrated HBCU Day at Wrigley Field and presented the United Negro College Fund with a $110,000 donation.

Hispanic Outreach
The Cubs relationships with charitable organizations and programs serving Latino communities throughout the area continues to grow. Each September, the Cubs celebrate Hispanic Heritage month by hosting a Roberto Clemente Day reception for Hispanic business, civic and community leaders across Chicago.

Theo Epstein
President, Baseball Operations

Theo is in his 16th season as a General Manager or President of Baseball Operations and has won three World Series (2004 and 2007 with Boston, 2016 with Chicago) ... ended championship droughts of 108 years with the 2016 Cubs and 86 years with the 2004 Red Sox ... served as Boston's general manager for the 2003-2011 seasons and has been the Cubs' President of Baseball Operations since October 25, 2011 ... Chicago has won six post-season series in the last three years after winning just one in 105 years from 1909-2014 ... signed a five-year extension through 2021 on September 28, 2016 ... is in his 27th season in Major League Baseball.

- Epstein is one of only four executives all-time to lead multiple organizations to World Series titles and is just the third to do so in both leagues ... Hall of Famers Pat Gillick (1992-93 Blue Jays, 2008 Phillies) and John Schuerholz (1985 Royals, 1995 Braves) won in each league, and Bob Howsam won with the 1964 Cardinals (after joining St. Louis in August, 1964) and the 1975-76 Reds.
- In 2002, Epstein became the youngest General Manager in baseball history at the age of 28 years, 11 months ... two years later, at age 30, he became (and remains) the youngest General Manager to win a World Series.
- During the 2017-18 offseason, the Cubs were aggressive in the free agent market, singing eight major league free agents including pitchers Yu Darvish, Tyler Chatwood, Brandon Morrow and Steve Cishek.
- The 2016 World Series title was the culmination of a five-year rebuild of the Cubs' baseball operation in which Epstein and his staff restructured the scouting and player development operation and front office and acquired a young core of talent through trades, drafts, and free agency.
- All but two of the 25 players on the Cubs' 2016 World Series-winning roster were acquired under Epstein, including 13 via trade ... the Cubs had the consensus top farm system in baseball in 2015 before winning the World Series in 2016.
- The Cubs have made 56 trades during Epstein's tenure, including:
  - Acquired LHP Jose Quintana from the White Sox for RHP Dylan Cease, OF Eloy Jimenez, INF Bryant Flete and INF Matt Rose on July 13, 2017.
  - Acquired 1B Anthony Rizzo and RHP Zach Cates from the Padres for RHP Andrew Cashner and OF Kyung-Min Na on January 6, 2012.
  - Acquired RHP Kyle Hendricks and 3B Christian Villanueva from the Rangers for RHP Ryan Dempster on July 31, 2012.
  - Acquired RHP Jake Arrieta, RHP Pedro Strop and international slot money from the Orioles for RHP Scott Feldman and C Steve Clevenger on July 2, 2013.
  - Acquired RHP CJ Edwards, RHP Justin Grimm, RHP Neil Ramirez and 3B Mike Olt from the Rangers for RHP Matt Garza on July 22, 2013.
  - Acquired SS Addison Russell, OF Billy McKinney and cash from the Athletics for RHP Jeff Samardzija and RHP Jason Hammel on July 5, 2014.
  - Acquired OF Dexter Fowler from the Astros for RHP Dan Straily and 3B Luis Valbuena on January 19, 2015.
- Epstein's first three first-round draft picks with the Cubs were all on the 2016 World Series roster: Albert Almora (2012), Kris Bryant (2013), and Kyle Schwarber (2014) ... the trio combined to set up the go-ahead run in the top of the 10th inning of Game 7 of the 2016 World Series when Schwarber singled and Almora pinch-ran, moved to second on Bryant's deep fly to center, and scored on Ben Zobrist's double.
- In nine seasons as Red Sox GM (2003-11), his clubs made six postseason appearances, won 95 or more games six times, won 90 or more seven times, had 89 or more wins eight times, and played to a .575 winning percentage.
- Named Red Sox General Manager on November 25, 2002 and in his first off-season signed David Ortiz, Bill Mueller, Kevin Millar and Mike Timlin as low-priced free agents ... traded for Curt Schilling and signed Keith Foulke in his second off-season ... on July 31, 2004, traded Nomar Garciaparra for Orlando Cabrera and Doug Mientkiewicz and acquired Dave Roberts for Henri Stanley.
- Epstein acquired 15 of the 25 players on the 2004 Red Sox World Series roster.
- The 2004 Red Sox featured only one product of the farm system during the World Series (Trot Nixon), while the 2007 Red Sox featured eight homegrown players during the Fall Classic.
- The Red Sox were named the best drafting team of the decade by Baseball America during Epstein's tenure ... in his nine drafts from 2003-11, the Red Sox drafted eight All-Stars (Jonathan Papelbon, Dustin Pedroia, Jacoby Ellsbury, Clay Buchholz, Justin Masterson, Anthony Rizzo, Jackie Bradley Jr. and Mookie Betts) ... two more All-Stars (Jose Iglesias and Xander Bogaerts) were signed as international amateur free agents under Epstein.
- In Dustin Pedroia (2007-08) and Kris Bryant (2015-16), Epstein drafted two of the three players in baseball history to win Rookie of the year, MVP, and a World Series title in their two seasons ... Cal Ripken (1982-83) is the other.
- Epstein was named Executive of the Decade (2000-09) for baseball by The Sporting News and was third on Sports Illustrated's list of Top-10 GMs/Executives of the Decade in all sports ... additionally, he won Executive of the Year awards in 2016 (Sporting News, Boston Baseball Writers Association of America, MLB Esurance, Negro Leagues Museum), in 2008 (Baseball America), in 2004 (Boston BBWAA) and in 2003 (Boston BBWAA).
- Prior to his time as General Manager with the Red Sox, was the organization's Assistant General Manager beginning in March of 2002 ... prior to that, spent five seasons with the San Diego Padres baseball operations department beginning in 1997, including a stint as Director of Baseball Operations ... was a member of the Padres Communications department in 1995-96 and began his baseball career as a summer intern for the Baltimore Orioles in 1992-94.
- Graduated from Yale University (1995) and the University of San Diego Law School (2000).
- In the spring of 2005, Theo and his twin brother, Paul, launched The Foundation To Be Named Later (FTBNL) ... the foundation has raised $9 million for scholarships and non-profits serving disadvantaged youth in the Boston and Chicago areas.
- Theo and his wife, Marie, have two sons, Jack and Drew.

A Ricketts family holding company has management control of the joint venture as its 95 percent owner. Tribune retains a five-percent ownership interest. In February 2015, the Ricketts family sold a minority non-voting interest in its family holding company to investors.

On October 6, 2009, Major League Baseball owners unanimously approved the transaction by a vote of 29-0.

Hulbert began as the club's first owner. Prior to the Ricketts family, the Cubs had only two owners in the last 90 years, including 62 years of family ownership starting in 1919 when William Wrigley, Jr. purchased the franchise. In 1977, William Wrigley took over the club following the passing of his father, Philip, before selling to the Tribune Company four years later in 1981.

TRIPLE PLAYS: LAST TIME IT HAPPENED

The Cubs have been involved in 77 triple plays since 1876, turning 40 and hitting into 37. The Cubs have hit into the last four triple plays they've been involved in (most recently September 14, 2014 at Pittsburgh – Matt Szczur hit into 5-4-3 triple play).

On May 10, 1997, in San Francisco, the Cubs turned their last triple play. The Giants' Stan Javier faced Amaury Telemaco in the fifth inning with Kirk Rueter on second base and Darryl Hamilton on first. Javier hit a fly ball to short center field, with second base umpire Bob Davidson invoking the infield fly rule. The ball dropped in, and both baserunners were thrown out attempting to advance (center fielder Brian McRae to third baseman Jose Hernandez to second baseman Ryne Sandberg).

The last triple play turned at Wrigley Field was by San Francisco on May 8, 1998 (first baseman Charlie Hayes to shortstop Rich Aurilia). The last time the Cubs turned a triple play at The Friendly Confines occurred June 2, 1983, vs. Pittsburgh – when Pirates pitcher Rick Rhoden hit into an around-the-horn triple killing (third baseman Ron Cey to second baseman Ryne Sandberg to first baseman Bill Buckner).

On May 30, 1927, shortstop Jimmy Cooney turned the only unassisted triple play in Cubs history. In the fourth inning of the Cubs' game in Pittsburgh, Cooney caught Paul Waner's line drive, stepped on second base to retire Lloyd Waner, then tagged Clyde Barnhart off first.

CLARK THE CUB

Clark was born loving the Cubs - it's in his blood! His great-grandbear Joa was once the original live bear mascot for the team back in the early 1900s. When Joa retired to the Lincoln Park Zoo, he delighted the young bears with hundreds of amazing Cubs stories, and Clark was hooked! He dreamed of making his great-grandbear proud and playing for the Cubs - even though he'd never even seen a game.

Then one day, Clark heard the roar of the crowd coming all the way from Wrigleyville. Determined to finally see the Cubs in person, he followed the sound to Wrigley Field, just in time to see the Cubs raise the W flag.

Inspired by Clark's enthusiasm and love of all things Cub, the team invited him to continue the family tradition and become their official mascot! Soon, he had his very own Clubhouse, and you can usually find him there. His favorite thing to do is hang out around the ballpark, keeping spirits high and kids excited!

Clark's Favorites
Favorite Color: Cubbie Blue
Favorite Vacation Spot: Mesa, Arizona
Favorite Movie: Rookie of the Year
Favorite Song: "Go, Cubs, Go"
Favorite Ice Cream Flavor: Chocolate malt cups

HOME RUNS IN THE STATCAST ERA

MLB Statcast, installed in all 30 major league ballparks in 2015, is a state-of-the-art tracking technology that collects data using a series of high-resolution optical cameras along with radar equipment. Below are the top five exit velocities (the speed of a baseball after being hit) and projected distances (the distance a home run ball would travel if unhindered by obstructions) on Cubs home runs according to Statcast since 2015.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team. In 2017, Anthony Rizzo was honored as the league-wide recipient of the award, the first Cubs winner since Sammy Sosa in 1998 ... Rizzo was the Cubs recipient for the award for the fifth-consecutive year.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award, sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Rob Manfred, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Craig Biggio, Clayton Kershaw, Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, Cal Ripken, Jr., Albert Pujols, Derek Jeter, Andrew McCutchen and Curtis Granderson.

THE CUBS ARE QUITE SOCIAL

The Chicago Cubs are communicating with fans via social network sites like Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, Pinterest, Snapchat and others.

On Twitter, fans can check out @Cubs for breaking announcements, in-game interaction, promotions and unique news about the organization ... more than 3.4 million fans of the Cubs' Facebook page enter sweepstakes, participate in polls, view videos and learn about special events at Wrigley Field ... fans on Instagram and Snapchat receive an exclusive behind-the-scenes look at Wrigley Field ... keep an eye out for team involvement on other popular social media platforms throughout the 2018 season.

UNDER THE LIGHTS

In 1988, the Cubs added a new dimension to already historic Wrigley Field - ballpark lights, allowing the club to play night games ... Chicago hosted the Phillies, August 8 of that season, in the first scheduled night game at Wrigley Field ... that game was rained out prior to five innings, so the first official night game at the Friendly Confines took place the following evening, August 9, against the Mets (a 6-4 Cubs win) ... here's a look at how the club has done under the Wrigley Field lights since 1988:

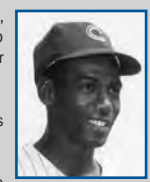
ERNIE BANKS — MR. CUB



For 19 seasons, Ernie Banks delighted Wrigley Field fans with his long home runs and cheerful disposition. He hit 512 home runs, surpassing the 40-roundtrippers mark five times. He hit 277 of his homers as a shortstop — a National League record. He also holds the N.L. single-season mark for homers by a shortstop (47 in 1958). The 14-time All-Star won the N.L. Most Valuable Player Award following both the 1958 and 1959 campaigns.

Banks, whose No. 14 flies from the left field foul pole at Wrigley Field, was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1977. He was voted to Major League Baseball's All-Century team in 1999.

Born on January 31, 1931 in Dallas, Texas, Banks played for the Cubs from 1953-71 and served as a coach from 1967-73. He made his major league debut September 17, 1953.

Following Whitey Lockman's ejection on May 8, 1973, coach Ernie Banks took over the reigns as acting manager becoming the first African-American to manage a major league team.

In 2008, Banks was honored by the Cubs with a statue at Wrigley Field, commemorating his illustrious career.

In 2013, Banks was presented with the Presidential Medal of Freedom, an award given to those who have made "an especially meritorious contribution to the security or national interests of the United States, world peace, cultural or other significant public or private endeavors." It is the highest civilian award of the United States.

Banks passed away on January 23, 2015 at the age of 83. The Cubs honored him throughout the 2015 campaign, including wearing a No. 14 patch on their uniforms and displaying a No. 14 logo behind home plate at Wrigley Field.

30 IS THE MAGIC NUMBER

The Cubs have had four starting pitchers make 30 or more starts in a season just six times since 1901, including in 2015 and 2016 when Jake Arrieta, Jon Lester, Kyle Hendricks and Jason Hammel all reached the 30-start plateau. The Cubs have made the playoffs each of the last four seasons in which they have had four pitchers make 30 starts, as they also accomplished the feat in 2003 and 2007. The club also had four starters reach 30 starts in 1975 and 1977.

BEAR CUBS

The greatest number of players to make their major league debuts in one season for the Cubs is 20 – in 1902. The high number of youngsters that season was one of the primary reasons why the club was nicknamed the "Cubs." With the raid of National League players by American League teams, many N.L. clubs stocked their spring training rosters with young, unproven players. The Chicago Daily News, noting all the youngsters in the Chicago camp, used the nickname "Cubs" for the first time in its March 27, 1902 edition.

DOUBLE DOWN

The Cubs have hit a club-record 340 doubles in a season twice in club history – 1931 and 2007. In 2007, the club averaged 2.1 doubles per contest while the 1931 squad averaged 2.2 doubles over the 154-game schedule.

In 2008, three Cubs – Aramis Ramirez (44 doubles), Derrek Lee (41) and Geovany Soto (35) – had 35 or more doubles. It marked the ninth time since 1901 that three Cubs amassed 35 or more doubles in the same season. The 120 doubles between them was tied for the third-highest total of any Cubs threesome (in 2007, Derrek Lee had 43, Alfonso Soriano had 42 and Aramis Ramirez had 35), and the most since the 1932 trio of Riggs Stephenson (49), Charlie Grimm (42) and Billy Herman (42) collected a club-record 133 doubles. In 1930, Kiki Cuyler (50), Woody English (36) and Hack Wilson (35) combined for 121 doubles.

Chicago has reached 300 doubles in a season nine times, including five of the last 15 seasons entering the 2018 campaign (most recently in 2008).

SAVE RULE

Rule 10.19 tells the official scorer to credit a pitcher with a save when:

(a) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his team, and; (b) he is not the winning pitcher, and; (c) he is credited with at least 1/3 of an inning pitched, and; (d) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: (1) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least 1.0 inning, or; (2) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or; (3) he pitches effectively for at least 3.0 innings.

When a relief pitcher enters a game in a save situation and departs or the game ends with the save situation no longer in effect because he has given up the lead, he is charged with a "blown save." If the save opportunity still exists when he leaves the game, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

If the pitcher has not given up the lead when he leaves the game, though the save opportunity may no longer exist because of added runs scored by his own team, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

HOW TO CALCULATE BASEBALL STATISTICS

Earned Run Average = (ERx9)/IP ... Earned runs multiplied by 9, then divided by innings pitched (0.1 innings = .333, 0.2 innings = .667).

Batting Average = H/AB ... Hits divided by at-bats.

Slugging Percentage = TB/AB ... Total number of bases (single = 1 base, double = 2 bases, triple = 3 bases, home run = 4 bases) divided by at-bats.

Fielding Average = (PO+A)/(PO+A+E) ... Putouts plus assists divided by total chances (putouts plus assists plus errors).

On-Base Percentage = (H+BB+HBP)/(AB+BB+HBP+SF) ... Hits plus walks plus hit-by-pitch divided by at-bats plus walks plus hit-by-pitch plus sacrifice flies.

Win-Loss Percentage = Number of games won divided by total games played.

Magic Numbers = Compute the number of games remaining, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings of the closest opponent.

DIGGING OUT OF A HOLE

No Cubs team has ever overcome being more than 10 games below the .500 mark to finish a campaign at .500 or above. The biggest turnaround was 10 games, accomplished in 1968. The 1968 club was 10 games under .500 twice, most recently on July 5 (35-45). That team finished the year at 84-78.

In 2007, the club was nine games below .500 at 22-31 and finished eight games above .500 at 85-77 to win the N.L. Central title.

MAJOR LEAGUE WAIVER RULES

There are four types of waiver requests — Major League Waivers, Special Waivers, Outright Waivers and Unconditional Release Waivers.

Major League Waivers are necessary for any player assignment between major league clubs made from August 1 until the day after the close of the regular season. Waivers are not needed for Major League assignments during the rest of the year. The trading deadline in which waivers are not needed is July 31.

Special Waivers are irrevocable. They are required for a major league club to outright a player to a minor league club from September 1 until the 30th day of the following season.

Outright Waivers are irrevocable. They are required for a major league club to outright a player to a minor league club from the 31st day of the regular season until August 31.

Unconditional Release Waivers can be secured at any point during the year.

2017 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

THIRD-STRAIGHT NLCS: The Chicago Cubs reached the National League Championship Series for the third-straight season, falling to the Los Angeles Dodgers, four-games-to-one ... Chicago advanced to the NLCS thanks to a three-games-to-two National League Division Series victory over the Washington Nationals, including a 9-8 game five victory in Washington.

- The Cubs became the first team to reach the NLCS three-straight seasons since the St. Louis Cardinals did so from 2011-14.
- The Cubs qualified for post-season play three years in a row for the first time since 1906-08.

N.L. CENTRAL CHAMPS: The Chicago Cubs on September 27 in St. Louis clinched their second-straight National League Central Division title and punched a ticket to the postseason for the third-straight campaign.

- The Cubs became the first defending World Series champions to win their division the next season, and reach 90 wins while doing so, since the 2009 Philadelphia Phillies went 93-69 and won the N.L. East by six games.
- In fact, besides the 2017 Cubs and the 2009 Phillies, the only other defending World Champion to win their division the following season in the last 15 years was the 2002 Arizona Diamondbacks, who won the N.L. West by 2.5 games.
- Furthermore, the Cubs became the first defending World Champions to even make the playoffs the next season since the 2012 Cardinals secured a Wild Card spot.

ABOUT THE RECORD: The Cubs finished the 2017 regular season with a 90-72 (.568) record, finishing 6.0 games ahead of the Milwaukee Brewers in the N.L. Central Division.

- Chicago reached the 90-win mark for the third-straight season and for the 25th time in franchise history dating to 1876.

A TALE OF TWO HALVES: Chicago was 43-45 (.489) entering the All-Star Break, tied for second in the N.L. Central Division with St. Louis and 5.5-games behind Milwaukee ... the Cubs went 49-25 (.662) in the "second half" to gain 11.5 games over the Brewers and capture the division.

- The team's .662 winning percentage in the second half was second-best in all of baseball behind the Indians (55-20, .733) ... Chicago's 423 runs scored following the All-Star Break led the majors while its +127 run differential ranked second behind Cleveland (+180).

ROAD WARRIORS: Chicago completed its regular season road schedule with a 44-37 mark, and its .543 road winning percentage ranked third in the N.L. ... Washington led at 50-31 (.617).

- With road marks of 48-33 in 2015 and 46-34 in 2016, the team has recorded 44 or more victories on the road for three-straight seasons for the first time since four-straight campaigns from 1906-09.
- The Cubs won 26 of their last 38 road games dating to July 2 after starting the campaign 18-25 in their first 43 road contests.

800 CLUB: With 822 runs scored, the Cubs surpassed 800 runs for the second season in a row (808 runs in 2016) and just the 10th time in their last 118 seasons starting in 1900 ... the Cubs reached 800 runs in consecutive campaigns for the first time in more than 85 years, as the Cubs last did so in three-straight seasons from 1929-1931, also the only other occasion in which the Cubs scored at least 800 runs in two-straight seasons starting in 1900.

JUST WIN, BABY: The Cubs recorded 292 regular season victories from 2015-17, marking the winningest three-season span for the franchise in over 100 years ... the franchise last won more games in a three-season span from 1909-1911 (300 victories).

- The Cubs recorded their third-straight winning campaign dating to 2015 ... this is just the third stretch of at least three-straight winning campaigns for Chicago in the last 78 seasons starting in 1940 ... that includes a six-year run from 1967-72 and 2007-09.

HE'LL MANAGE: Joe Maddon on May 17 against Cincinnati recorded his 1,000th managerial victory covering his stints with the Angels (interim in 1996, 1999), the Rays (2006-14) and the Cubs (2015-present).

- Maddon is the eighth active manager to reach 1,000 victories.
- He has 292 wins as Cubs manager, already 11th-most in franchise history, while his .602 winning percentage (292-193) trails only fellow Cubs World Series Manager Frank Chance (768-389, .664) for best in Cubs history (minimum 300 games).

A WALK IN THE PARK: Chicago's 622 walks drawn were second-most in the majors (Dodgers, 649), as the Cubs reached the 600-walk mark for just the eighth time in franchise history ... the 2016 club set a franchise mark with 656 free passes.

HOMER HAPPY: The Cubs hit 223 home runs, the second-highest single-season total in franchise history, surpassed only by the 2004 club and its 235 homers.

- Chicago's 223 home runs ranked third in the N.L. ... the team's 106 blasts in the second half ranked second behind Arizona (107).
- The Cubs set a franchise mark with six players with at least 20 homers: Kris Bryant, Willson Contreras, Ian Happ, Anthony Rizzo, Kyle Schwarber and Javier Báez ... the club previously had five players with at least 20 homers in 1958, 2004 and 2008.
- Additionally, the Cubs set a major league record with five 20-homer seasons by players in their age 25 or younger season (Báez, Bryant, Contreras, Happ, Schwarber) ... this surpassed the 2007 Brewers and 1979 Expos (four apiece).

KB AT THE DISH: Per Fangraphs, Kris Bryant finished third in the National League with a 6.7 WAR, trailing only Washington's Anthony Rendon (6.9) and Miami's Giancarlo Stanton (6.9).

- Bryant's 111 runs scored ranked fifth in the N.L. ... he's just the 12th Cub since 1913 to record multiple 100-run seasons, and the first since Sammy Sosa did so five times from 1998-2002.
- Bryant led the team with 95 walks, third-most in the N.L. (teammate Anthony Rizzo was fifth with 91), while Bryant's .409 on-base percentage was fourth.
- Bryant is the first Cub ever to reach 25 home runs in each of his first three major league campaigns.
- With 151 games played, Bryant became the first Cub ever to play at least 150 contests in each of his first three major league campaigns.

NOBODY BEATS THE RIZZ: Anthony Rizzo reached 109 RBI, fifth-most in the N.L. and the most by any left-handed hitter in the majors ... the 109 RBI tied his career high done in 2016 ... with 101 RBI in 2015 and 109 RBI in 2016, Rizzo is just one of nine Cubs all-time with three or more 100-RBI campaigns.

- © Rizzo reached 30 doubles, 30 homers and 100 RBI for the third-straight campaign, doing so before Labor Day in 2017 ... he's only the fourth Cub ever to reach those thresholds in at least three seasons, joining Hack Wilson (4 times, 1927-30), Billy Williams (3 times, 1965, 1970, 1972) and Sammy Sosa (3 times, 1997, 2000-01) ... Rizzo and Wilson are the lone Cubs to do so in at least three-straight seasons.
- © Rizzo finished the season with a career-high 138-game errorless streak at first base dating to April 25, surpassing Hall of Famer Ernie Banks and his 126-game errorless run at first base spanning 1969-70 seasons as the longest by a Cubs first baseman since at least the live ball era started in 1920 ... thanks to Ed Hartig for his research assistance.

32 IN A ROW: Cubs closer Wade Davis began the campaign by converting a franchise-record 32-straight save opportunities through September 19 with his streak coming to an end, September 23 in Milwaukee.

- © Davis surpassed previous record holder Ryan Dempster, who converted 26-straight opportunities from August 2, 2005-May 1, 2006.
- © Davis had locked down 38-straight save chances dating to 2016 with the Royals.
- © All told, Davis in 2017 went 4-2 with a 2.30 ERA (15 ER/58.2 IP) in 59 games ... he was 32-for-33 in save opportunities.
- © Davis was named to the National League All-Star Team via the player vote ... he was the first Cubs relief pitcher to head to the Mid-Summer Classic since Carlos Marmol and Kerry Wood did so in 2008 ... additionally, Davis was the first relief pitcher to garner an All-Star nod in his first season as a Cub since Mitch Williams in 1989.

DYNAMIC DUO: Wade Davis (10.1 IP) and Carl Edwards Jr. (10.0 IP) became the first Cubs relief duo to both allow no earned runs in the season's first month while pitching at least 10.0 innings.

- © In fact, prior to this year just five Cubs relievers since 1969 did not allow an earned run in the season's first month while throwing at least 10.0 innings: Ted Abernathy in 1969, Dick Tidrow in 1980, Mitch Williams in 1990, Terry Adams in 1997 and James Russell in 2013.

BIG COMEBACKS: The Cubs won three-straight games, April 18-21, erasing a three-run or greater deficit in each of those victories ... April 18, the team erased an early 5-0 deficit to beat Milwaukee, 9-7 ... April 19, the team was down 4-1 in the sixth, but won, 7-4 ... April 21 in Cincinnati, the Cubs were down 5-2 through six before rallying to win in 11 innings, 6-5.

- © According to Elias, the Cubs won three straight games after trailing by three of more runs in each for the first time since July 24-26, 1929 against the New York Giants and Philadelphia Phillies.

WE'LL TAKE IT: Won 1-0, April 25 in Pittsburgh, with the lone run coming on a Pittsburgh fielding error in the second inning.

- © According to Elias, the game marked just the third time in the last 78 years the Cubs won a game while producing only one run and two or fewer hits, having also done that on June 30, 1964 vs. the Reds (1-0 win with two hits) and on September 1, 1999 at the Padres (1-0 win with two hits).
- © It was Chicago's first road victory without garnering a run batted in since September 12, 2000 at Cincinnati, a 2-1 victory in which the Cubs runs scored on an error and a balk.

LONG NIGHT AT THE YARD: The Cubs on May 7 hosted the New York Yankees on ESPN Sunday Night Baseball, a contest that the Yankees won, 5-4 in 18 innings ... it was Chicago's longest game innings-wise since an 18-inning game, August 15, 2006, at Houston (an 8-6 Cubs win) ... it was Chicago's longest home game since an 8-7 setback in 18 innings vs. Houston, Sept, 2, 1986 (game was suspended and completed the next day).

- © The Cubs and Yankees set a major league record as they combined for 48 strikeouts, surpassing the previous mark of 43 strikeouts set on July 9, 1971 in a game between the California Angels and Oakland Athletics ... the previous Wrigley Field mark was 37 strikeouts, set on May 31, 2003 vs. Houston ... thanks to Elias and ESPN Stats & Info.
- © The May 7 game was the longest interleague game, by innings, in major league history.

TAMING COORS: John Lackey on May 9 in Colorado (gm. 2) became just the second-ever visiting starter to post 7.0-scoreless innings and 10+ strikeouts at Coors Field ... the Cubs defeated the Rockies, 8-1.

NICE BIG LEAGUE DEBUT: Ian Happ on May 13 in St. Louis saw his first major league hit go for a two-run homer off Carlos Martinez, the first Cubs player to homer in his first major league game since Jorge Soler on August 27, 2014.

- © Happ is the first Cubs player to see his first hit go for a home run since Willson Contreras hit the first delivery he saw in the big leagues for a homer on June 19, 2016.

HR, HR, BB, 1B, 2B, 1B, HR: Anthony Rizzo reached safely to start the game in each of his first seven career games at the top of the order, June 13-20 ... he became the only player in the last 60 seasons to reach in his first plate appearance in each of his first seven career games batting leadoff (thanks to Elias) ... the only other Cubs player since 1946 to reach safely leading off seven-straight team games is Richie Ashburn – he turned the trick, June 28-July 3, 1960.

- © June 13-14, Rizzo became the first Cub since at least 1920 to hit a home run to lead off a game in each of his first two career games batting leadoff.

RUNS APLENTY: The Cubs plated 15 or more runs four times in August, the first time in over 87 years in which the Cubs had four games with 15 or more runs scored in a calendar month since previously doing so in June of 1930.

- © The Cubs led the majors with 191 runs scored in August, the most by a Cubs team in August since the 1930 squad plated 216 runs.

RUNS APLENTY II: The Cubs swept a three-game set with the Mets, Sept. 12-14, by scores of 8-3, 17-5 and 14-6 ... the team plated at least 14 runs in consecutive games for the first time since July 20-21, 2003 at the Marlins (16) and Braves (15) ... marked the first time scoring at least 14 runs in consecutive home games since a twinbill, May 21, 1944 vs. the Boston Braves.

EXTRA, EXTRA, EXTRA!: The Chicago Cubs played three-straight extra-inning games at Milwaukee, Sept. 21-23 ... Chicago won on Sept. 21 in 10 innings on a Kris Bryant two-run homer, then took the next day's contest thanks in part to a Tommy La Stella bases-loaded walk in the 10th ... the Brewers won Sept. 23's contest in the 10th on a Travis Shaw two-run homer for a 4-3 victory.

- © The previous time the Cubs played three-straight extra-inning games in the same series was September 17-19, 1999 vs. Milwaukee at Wrigley Field ... the previous time Chicago played three-straight extra-inning games on the road against the same team was Sept. 13-15, 1932 against the Giants at the Polo Grounds ... thanks to Ed Hartig for his research assistance.

GOING THE DISTANCE

The last time Cubs pitchers went the distance in three consecutive contests took place during the 1976 campaign — when Rick Reuschel (September 18), Ray Burris (September 19) and Steve Renko (September 21) did the honors.

The last time the Cubs had three straight complete-game shutouts took place in May 1969. Ken Holtzman started the streak May 11 with an 8-0 victory over San Francisco. Fergie Jenkins then blanked San Diego 2-0 on May 12. Dick Selma finished the stretch with a three-hitter in a 19-0 victory over the Padres May 13.

GRAND SLAM FACTS AND FIGURES

The Cubs have hit 317 grand slams in franchise history, including six last season.

The Cubs record for grand slams in a season is nine, recorded in 1929 by Hack Wilson (2), Rogers Hornsby (2), Charlie Grimm (2), Riggs Stephenson, Norman McMillan and Kiki Cuyler. McMillan's roundtripper was of the inside-the-park variety.

The club's first grand slam was hit by pitcher Larry Corcoran on June 20, 1882, off Worcester's Lee Richmond at Chicago's Lakefront Park.

The only Cubs to hit more than two grand slams in one season are Ernie Banks (5 in 1955), Wildfire Schulte (4 in 1911) and Sammy Sosa (3 in 1998). Sosa hit grand slams in back-to-back games July 27-July 28 of that season, becoming the first Cub to accomplish that feat.

On June 3, 1987, the Cubs and Houston Astros combined to hit three grand slams — tying a major league single-game record. Two Cubs hit bases-loaded roundtrippers — Brian Dayett (off Bob Knepper) and Keith Moreland (off Julio Solano). Houston's Billy Hatcher hit a grand slam in the contest off Rick Sutcliffe.

On August 16, 1890, Chicago batters Tom Burns and Malachi Kittridge both connected for fifth-inning grand slams off Pittsburgh's Bill Phillips — for the franchise's only multiple grand slam inning.

The first switch-hitting Cub was player/manager Bob Ferguson in 1878. Don Kessinger, meanwhile, holds the switch-hitting longevity mark for the Cubs at 12 years (1964-1975).

CUBS PITCHING NOTES

The Cubs set a team mark in 2013 by utilizing 31 different pitchers.

The club mark for most left-handed pitchers to see mound action in a season is 10 – a figure reached in 1999, 2000 and 2017. Prior to the 1999 campaign, the team record of eight had stood since 1966.

The team mark for most strikeouts by a reliever is 11, set by Dave Hillman during a 7.2-inning relief stint May 28, 1959, against Los Angeles.

The last Cubs position player to take the mound for the Cubs was outfielder Leonys Martin, who pitched 0.2 innings, September 4, 2017 vs. the Pirates

Since the advent of divisional play in 1969, only two Cubs have recorded saves in their major league debuts: Todd Wellemeyer (5/15/03 @ MIL) and Kyuji Fujikawa (4/1/13 @ PIT).

The last Cubs rookie to hurl consecutive complete games was Rich Hill in 2006 (September 16 vs. Cincinnati, September 22 at Cincinnati). Hill finished with two complete games in 2006, making him the first Cubs rookie with more than one complete game in a season since Frank Castillo tossed four in 1991.

The best career start record-wise for a Cubs pitcher is 8-0, recorded by King Cole in 1910 and Carlos Silva in 2010. The worst start belongs to Chris Volstad, who began his Cubs career 0-9 in 2012.

On July 17, 1918, Lefty Tyler pitched a Cubs-record 21 innings in a route-going 2-1 win against Philadelphia. He gave up 13 hits and one walk while striking out eight.

Three years earlier, on June 17, 1915, reliever George "Zip" Zabel was called into a game against Brooklyn with two out in the top of the 1st inning at West Side Grounds. He had to pitch 18.1 innings before earning the win, as the Cubs won 4-3 in the 19th inning.

Spalding also had the first hit in franchise history, while center fielder Paul Hines scored the first run on a throwing error in the second inning.

- © The first home run in N.L. history was hit by the White Stockings' Ross Barnes on May 2 in a 15-9 victory in Cincinnati.
- © The creation of the N.L. was credited largely to William A. Hulbert, who held the dual role of league president and Chicago president until 1882 ... with the assistance of manager Albert Spalding, Hulbert drafted the N.L. constitution and by-laws in 1875.
- © Of the eight original charter members of the National League, only the Cubs have operated continuously in the same city.

1883: Chicago set major league records when it scored 18 runs and collected 18 hits in September 6's seventh frame ... the Cubs went on to beat Detroit 26-6.

1903: In October, the Cubs and White Sox held the first of the semi-annual "City Series" ... at points from 1903-1942, the two teams met following the regular season for a crosstown set as long as neither team made the Fall Classic.

- © Wrigley's involvement with the team began in 1916, when a 10-man syndicate led by Charles Weeghman purchased the club from Charles Taft ... in 1919, Wrigley purchased Weeghman's shares to have controlling interest.
- © After Wrigley's death in 1932, his interest passed to his son, Philip K. Wrigley ... upon Philip's death in 1977, principal interest in the ballclub was left to his son, William Wrigley.
- © The sale of the club to Tribune Company in 1981 ended the longest continuous operation of a franchise by the same family in one city.

1924: The first Cubs game was broadcast on the radio ... Hal Totten transmitted the April 23 home opener from the Wrigley Field roof ... Chicago routed the Cardinals 12-1 in the contest.

RUNS SCORED — RUNS ALLOWED

The Cubs mark for scoring in consecutive games is 127, set from June 15, 1958-May 13, 1959. The team record for scoring in consecutive contests in one season is 109, set in 1943 (May 23-September 18).

The longest streak for Cubs pitchers without hurling a shutout is 106 games, set in 1901 (May 18-September 20).

On June 29, 1897, the Cubs scored at least one run in every inning in a 36-7 victory at Louisville. That was the only time in club history that the team scored at least one run in every frame. The last time the Cubs surrendered at least one run in every inning took place May 5, 1999, vs. Colorado at Wrigley Field.

Since 1900, the Cubs have thrown three consecutive shutouts seven times, with the last occurrence taking place July 21-July 24, 1992 — when the Cubs won 1-0 and 3-0 at Cincinnati and 1-0 at Houston.

The last time the Cubs threw shutouts in both games of a doubleheader occurred July 11, 1965, vs. St. Louis at Wrigley Field (identical 6-0 scores).

The Cubs were held scoreless in a National League-record 48 consecutive innings June 15-June 21, 1968. The club was blanked in four straight games June 16-June 20.

The last time the Cubs allowed three runs or fewer total during a Wrigley Field three-game set occurred September 15-17, 2014 vs. Cincinnati (1-0, 7-0, 3-1) ... the Cubs have allowed just one run total in a three-game series five times since 1900, most recently June 30-July 2, 2015 at New York-N.L.

From July 5-July 7, 2001, the Cubs scored 38 runs over a three-game span — winning by scores of 13-4 at New York and 15-9 and 10-6 at Detroit. Over the three-game span, the Cubs recorded 50 hits — including 21 for extra bases (12 doubles, four triples, five homers).

In 1930, the Cubs established a team record by reaching the 10-run plateau in five-straight games, June 1-June 6. During that stretch — the only time in club history that the team had a double-digit runs streak surpassing three games — the Cubs defeated Pittsburgh 16-4 on June 1 at Wrigley Field before going on a road trip. They swept the Boston Braves over a three-game span June 3-June 5 by scores of 15-2, 18-10 and 10-7, then went to Brooklyn and beat the Dodgers 13-0 on June 6.

During a 20-1 victory over Los Angeles (N.L.) May 5, 2001, the Cubs scored eight times during both the seventh and eighth innings. This was only the fifth time in major league history that a team plated at least eight runs in consecutive frames. The list:

April 30, 1887: St. Louis (N.L.) vs. Cleveland ..... nine in fifth, eight in sixth
June 16, 1887: Philadelphia (N.L.) vs. Washington ..... eight in seventh, eight in eighth
May 2, 1901: Boston (A.L.) vs. Philadelphia ..... nine in second, 10 in third
July 29, 1928: Cleveland vs. New York ..... eight in first, nine in second
May 5, 2001: CUBS vs. Los Angeles..... eight in seventh, eight in eighth

GAME DEFINITIONS

Night Game: Any game scheduled to start after 5 p.m. is considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5 p.m. and is delayed by rain or for any other reason, it is considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5:01 p.m., it is considered a night game.

Twi-Night Doubleheaders: Any twi-night doubleheader scheduled to start after 4 p.m. is considered two night games. If a twi-night doubleheader begins before 4 p.m., both contests are considered day games.

Tie Game: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the league standings and may be rescheduled at a later date.

Suspended Game: A game becomes a suspended game if it has progressed far enough (4 1/2 or 5 innings) to be an official game and is stopped because of (1) a curfew imposed by law, or (2) a pre-arranged time limit, or (3) darkness when a local law prohibits turning on the lights or when lights are not available.

LAST TRADE WITH ASTROS
1/19/2015: OF Dexter Fowler for RHP Daniel Straily and IF Luis Valbuena

KKKKKKKKKKKKKKKKKKKK

On May 6, 1998, in just his fifth big league start, Kerry Wood fanned 20 Houston Astros and allowed just one base hit in a complete-game 2-0 win at Wrigley Field ... allowed only two baserunners, giving up a single to Ricky Gutierrez in the third inning and hitting Craig Biggio in the sixth.

The 20 strikeouts:

- Tied the major league record for a nine-inning game set by Boston's Roger Clemens (April 29, 1986, and September 18, 1996).
- Eclipsed the National League record of 19 reached by Providence's Charlie Sweeney (June 7, 1884), St. Louis' Steve Carlton (September 15, 1969), New York's Tom Seaver (April 22, 1970) and New York's David Cone (October 6, 1991).
- Exceeded the M.L. rookie record of 18 strikeouts, which had been reached by the Philadelphia Athletics' Jack Coombs on September 1, 1906, and by Montreal's Bill Gullickson (against the Cubs) on September 10, 1980.
- Surpassed the Cubs mark of 17, set by Jack Pfiester in a 15-inning outing May 30, 1906, vs. St. Louis.

His inning-by-inning strikeouts:
First inning – Craig Biggio (swinging), Derek Bell (swinging), Jeff Bagwell (called)
Second – Jack Howell (swinging), Moises Alou (swinging)
Third – Brad Ausmus (swinging)
Fourth – Bagwell (called), Howell (called)
Fifth – Alou (called), Dave Clark (called), Ricky Gutierrez (called)
Sixth – Shane Reynolds (called)
Seventh – Bagwell (swinging), Howell (swinging), Alou (swinging)
Eighth – Clark (swinging), Gutierrez (swinging), Ausmus (called)
Ninth – Bill Spiers (swinging), Bell (swinging)

Kerry opened the game with five straight strikeouts and later had stretches in which he fanned five in a row and seven in a row.

Became just the second pitcher in M.L. history to strike out as many batters as his age ... 17-year-old Cleveland Indians rookie Bob Feller fanned 17 Philadelphia Athletics batters on September 13, 1936.

PHILLING UP THE SCOREBOARD

On August 25, 1922, the Cubs topped Philadelphia 26-23 at Cubs Park in the highest-scoring game in major league history. The teams combined for 51 hits, 23 walks and 25 men left-on-base. A 10-run second inning followed by a 14-run outburst in the fourth helped the Cubs build a 25-6 lead. Philadelphia fought back and had the bases full when the last out was recorded in the ninth inning.

On May 17, 1979, Dave Kingman hit three homers and drove in six runs, but Philadelphia's Mike Schmidt answered with two homers — including the game-winner in the 10th — to give the Phillies a 23-22 victory in baseball's highest-scoring game since the 1922 affair. The Cubs had trailed 21-9, but rallied and tied the score in the eighth.

THE SANDBERG GAME

On June 23, 1984, Ryne Sandberg went 5-for-6 with two late-inning dramatic homers and seven RBI in the Cubs' 11-inning 12-11 victory over St. Louis.

Sandberg hit a solo homer off the Cardinals' Bruce Sutter in the bottom of the ninth inning to knot the game at 9-9. Then, after St. Louis tallied twice in the top of the 10th, Sandberg once again knotted the game — this time with a two-run shot off Sutter. Following his game-tying homers, the Cubs won it on Dave Owen's RBI single.

"The Sandberg Game" overshadowed the performance of the Cardinals' Willie McGee, who hit for the cycle.

1998 NLDS: Braves Defeated Cubs 3-0

Atlanta pitching proved to be too much for the Cubs, who needed a Wild Card tie-breaker contest against San Francisco to qualify for the postseason.

- The Cubs were held to just four runs, 17 hits and a .181 average ... Braves pitchers recorded a 1.29 ERA.
- Cubs pitchers limited Atlanta's offense to just a .228 average ... Cubs starters gave up only four earned runs in 20.0 innings.
- Two days before the start of the Division Series – on September 28 at Wrigley Field – the Cubs earned a spot in the playoffs as the National League's Wild Card team after beating San Francisco 5-3 ... Steve Trachsel took a no-hitter into the sixth inning, Gary Gaetti belted a two-run homer, pinch-hitter Matt Mieske singled in two runs and Rod Beck picked up the save as the Cubs advanced to the playoffs.

2003 NLDS: Cubs Defeated Braves 3-2

For the first time since winning the 1908 World Series, the Cubs were victorious in a postseason series ... as such, the Cubs qualified for their first trip to the National League Championship Series since 1989.

- The affair was only the third "final and decisive" post-season contest in Cubs history ... the club had dropped Game Seven of the 1945 World Series to Detroit and Game Five of the 1984 NLCS to San Diego.
- With two victories, Kerry Wood became the first Cub to pick up a pair of wins in a post-season series since Hank Borowy in the 1945 World Series ... he fanned 18 batters in the two starts, surpassing the club-record 17 recorded by Hippo Vaughn in the 1918 World Series ... in the series-opening 4-2 victory, he had two hits – and drove in the game-winning run with a two-run double in the Cubs four-run sixth inning.
- In Game Three (a 3-1 Cubs win), Mark Prior went the distance – allowing two hits while fanning seven ... he was the first Cubs pitcher to throw a complete game in the postseason since Claude Passeau accomplished the feat in Game Three of the 1945 World Series ... in the process, he also became the second hurler to throw a two-hitter in a Division Series affair, joining Nolan Ryan (October 6, 1981).

2003 NLCS: Marlins Defeated Cubs 4-3

Five outs – that's all that stood between the Cubs 3-0 lead in Game Six and their first trip to the Fall Classic since 1945 ... before two of those outs could be recorded, Florida stunned the Cubs with an eight-run eighth-inning rally.

- By the time the fateful eighth was over, the Marlins had sent 12 batters to the plate ... the eight runs were the most in an NLCS inning since St. Louis plated nine in the second inning October 13, 1985, against Los Angeles.
- There was another day for the Cubs, however ... in Game Seven, they found themselves down 3-0 early before rallying to tie the score in the bottom of the second – including a two-run shot by Kerry Wood ... his roundtripper was just the fourth by a pitcher in NLCS history – and the first since the Cubs Rick Sutcliffe went deep in Game One of the 1984 NLCS vs. San Diego ... the Cubs then went ahead 5-3 in the third inning on Moises Alou's two-run homer ... from that point, though, the Cubs were held to just one hit – a Troy O'Leary pinch homer in the seventh off Josh Beckett – as the Marlins pushed across six runs from the fifth through seventh innings.
- In the process, the Marlins became the fourth team in League Championship Series history to overcome a three-games-to-one deficit in advancing to the World Series.

2007 NLDS: Diamondbacks Defeated Cubs 3-0

In the team's first post-season appearance since 2003, the Cubs were swept by the Arizona Diamondbacks, three-games-to-none, in the National League Division Series ... Chicago batted just .194 (19-for-98) in the series with six runs scored ... Chicago batted just .087 (2-for-23) with runners in scoring position while Geovany Soto hit the club's lone home run - a two-run blast in Game Two off Arizona's Doug Davis.

- © Soto's long ball made him just the second Cubs rookie to ever homer in a post-season contest ... previously, Cubs rookie Frank Demaree homered off the Yankees Johnny Allen on October 2, 1932, in the fourth game of the 1932 World Series at Wrigley Field..
- © The Cubs dropped Game One, 4-1, as Carlos Zambrano went up against Arizona's Brandon Webb ... the game was tied 1-1 before the Diamondbacks scored two runs off Carlos Marmol in the seventh.
- © Chicago enjoyed its only lead of the series when Soto's two-run homer in the second inning of Game Two at Chase Field gave the Cubs an early 2-0 ... Arizona rebounded for four runs in the bottom half of the inning and would hold the lead for the remainder of the game.
- © In Game Three, the Diamondbacks touched Rich Hill for three runs in 3.0 innings of work as Chicago went 0-for-9 with runners in scoring position.

WRIGLEY FIELD INFORMATION

History of Wrigley Field

The 2018 season marks the 103rd year of Cubs baseball at Wrigley Field and the 105th season of professional baseball ... opened in 1914, Wrigley Field is the second-oldest ballpark in the major leagues behind Boston's Fenway Park (1912).

- Originally known as Weeghman Park, Wrigley Field was built on the grounds once occupied by a seminary.
- Weeghman Park was the home of Chicago's entry into the Federal League and was the property of Charles H. Weeghman ... the club was known as both the Federals and the Whales.
- The cost of building Weeghman Park, which had a seating capacity of 14,000, was estimated at $250,000 ... the infield and outfield consisted of more than 4,000 yards of soil and four acres of bluegrass.
- The first major league game at the ballpark took place April 23, 1914, with the Federals defeating Kansas City 9-1 ... the first homer in ballpark history was hit by Federals catcher Art Wilson – a two-run shot in the second inning off Kansas City's Chief Johnson.
- When the Federal League folded for financial reasons after the 1915 campaign, Weeghman purchased the Cubs from the Taft family of Cincinnati and moved the club to the two-year-old ballpark at the corners of Clark and Addison streets.
- The first National League game at the ballpark was played April 20, 1916, when the Cubs beat the Cincinnati Reds 7-6 in 11 innings ... a bear cub was in attendance at the game.
- The park became known as Cubs Park in 1919, following the resignation of Charles Weeghman as team president at the December 1918 board of directors meeting - shortly after William Wrigley Jr. had assumed the title as largest stockholder in the club ... in 1926, with Mr. Wrigley owning more than 50 percent of the team stock and having purchased the land of the park in 1924, the field was renamed Wrigley Field.

HISTORIC MOMENTS AT THE FRIENDLY CONFINES:

- Babe Ruth's "called shot," when Ruth allegedly pointed to a bleacher location during Game 3 of the 1932 World Series ... Ruth then hit Charlie Root's next pitch for a homer.
- Gabby Hartnett's famous "Homer in the Gloamin'" September 28, 1938, off Pittsburgh's Mace Brown.
- The great May 2, 1917, pitching duel between Jim "Hippo" Vaughn and the Reds' Fred Toney ... both Vaughn and Toney threw no-hitters for 9.0 innings before Cincinnati's Jim Thorpe (of Olympic fame) drove in the only run in the 10th inning ... Toney finished with a no-hitter.
- Ernie Banks' 500th career home run May 12, 1970, vs. Atlanta's Pat Jarvis.
- Pete Rose's 4,191st career hit, which tied him with Ty Cobb for the most hits in baseball history ... Rose singled off Reggie Patterson September 8, 1985.
- Kerry Wood's 20-strikeout affair in 1998.
- Sammy Sosa's 60th home runs in 1998, 1999 and 2001.
- Greg Maddux's 3,000th career strikeout July 26, 2005.
- Tom Glavine's 300th career victory August 5, 2007.
- The Cubs clinched the N.L. Pennant at Wrigley Field, October 22, 2016, defeating the Dodgers, 5-0 in NLCS Game Six.
- The 1947, 1962 and 1990 All-Star Games.

RETIRED NUMBERS: The left and right field foul poles feature flags honoring the Cubs' six players with retired uniform numbers. Ernie Banks' uniform number (14) is imprinted on the flag which flies from atop the left field foul pole, directly above Ron Santo's No. 10 and Fergie Jenkins' No. 31 ... Ryne Sandberg's No. 23, Billy Williams' No. 26 and Greg Maddux' No. 31 fly from the right field foul pole.

BLEACHERS AND SCOREBOARD: The Wrigley Field bleachers and center-field scoreboard were constructed in 1937 when the outfield area was renovated to provide improved and expanded seating ... the original scoreboard remains intact.

- The score-by-innings and the pitchers' numbers are changed by hand ... the numbers signaling batter, ball, strike and out, along with "H" and "E" – to signify hit and error – are eyelets.
- No batted ball has ever hit the center-field scoreboard ... two baseballs barely missed – a homer hit onto Sheffield Avenue (right-center) by Bill Nicholson in 1948, and one hit by Roberto Clemente onto Waveland Avenue (left-center) in 1959.
- One of the traditions of Wrigley Field is the flying of a flag bearing a "W" or an "L" atop the scoreboard after a game ... a white flag with a blue "W" indicates a victory; a blue flag with a white "L" denotes a loss.

IVY WALLS: The original vines were purchased and planted by Bill Veeck in September 1937 ... Veeck strung bittersweet from the top of the wall to the bottom, then planted the ivy at the base of the wall.

LIGHTS: Wrigley Field added lights in 1988, becoming the final major league stadium to hold night games.

- The first night game took place August 8 against Philadelphia, with Rick Sutcliffe on the mound, but was rained out in the fourth inning.
- The first official night game occurred August 9 vs. New York, when the Cubs defeated the Mets 6-4.
- In 2018, Wrigley Field will celebrate its 30th anniversary of night baseball.
  - The Cubs entered the 2018 season having played 686 home night contests (going 365-321).

WRIGLEY FIELD CONSTRUCTION PROJECTS:

- During the winter of 1984, a new home clubhouse was completed under the third base stands ... the visitor's clubhouse was renovated in 1990.
- In 1989, a new press box and broadcast booths were constructed in the upper deck directly behind home plate ... private boxes were constructed on the mezzanine level, where the press box was formerly.
- Following the 2005 season, the Cubs expanded the bleachers, adding a restaurant in the batter's eye and a window to Sheffield Avenue in right field.
- In the winter of 2007, Wrigley Field underwent a major field renovation project to remove the field's crown, install an intricate drainage system and create a new playing surface.
- Prior to the 2010 season, the back of the centerfield scoreboard was fully renovated for the first time since it was installed in 1937 ... restrooms were remodeled and fitted with new fixtures, a new viewing plaza was created adjacent to the indoor batting cage to provide fans the opportunity to watch batting practice and the PNC Club was added to the mezzanine suites down the left field line.
- Prior to the 2012 campaign, the right-field Budweiser bleachers were transformed to include the Budweiser Patio ... the area provided fans with a rooftop experience inside the ballpark, and added a 75-foot LED board just above the right field fence.
- The long-awaited restoration and expansion of Wrigley Field, now known as The 1060 Project, is well underway ... this multi-year upgrade is designed to preserve the ballpark's beauty, charm and historic features that fans have cherished for more than a century, while updating and improving the iconic ballpark for fans, players and the community.
- The 1060 Project, which started at the conclusion of the 2014 baseball season, includes structural upgrades, improved player facilities, new fan amenities, outfield signage, two video boards, new premier clubs, expanded concessions, new and improved restroom facilities, and much more ... for more information on The 1060 Project, please visit www.wrigleyfield.com.

SPRING INFORMATION

Sloan Park — Mesa, Arizona

Spring Training 2018 marks the Cubs fifth year at their new complex in Mesa, Ariz., highlighted by Sloan Park - the largest ballpark by capacity in the Cactus League ... Sloan Valve Company, the official water efficiency partner of the Cubs, became the naming rights partner in January of 2015.

© Sloan Park has a seating capacity of 15,000 ... 9,200 in the seating bowl, 4,200 in the outfield berm and 1,600 in the suite level ... nearly 2,000 more than the Cubs' previous Spring Training home at HoHoKam Stadium ... the ballpark features a viewing area in left field called the Budweiser Rooftop, a third and first base party deck area, a kids area and a multi-purpose plaza area.

© The field dimensions are similar to Wrigley Field in layout, but generally slightly deeper due to the Arizona environment:

	Sloan Park (Mesa)	Wrigley Field (Chicago)
Left Field Line	360 feet	355 feet
Left Center	366 feet	368 feet
Center Field	410 feet	400 feet
Right Center	398 feet	368 feet
Right Field Line	360 feet	353 feet

© The Cubs complex features 16 batting tunnels, including 12 indoors, and 22 pitching mounds. The former Fitch Park, where the Cubs previously began Spring Training prior to the start of the Cactus League schedule, had eight pitching mounds and four batting tunnels.

- Additionally, the complex features four practice fields, two major league fields and a half-sized field.

© The 70,000-square foot Under Armour Performance Center houses Cubs offices, both major and minor league clubhouses, a 7,500-square foot workout facility, training facilities including a hydrotherapy room and a 120-seat theater.

© The 142-acre Spring Training complex is nearly twice as large as the 79 combined acres between Fitch Park and HoHoKam Stadium.

© The complex, located by the 101 and 202 interchange, houses both the Cubs major league and minor league spring operations, and is utilized year-round by the organization.

Sloan Park set the Cactus League single-season attendance record in 2017 with 226,933 fans passing through the gates ... it surpassed the previous mark of 226,163 set by the Cubs in 2016 ... including two additional exhibition games against Team Italy and Team Japan, Sloan Park hosted 251,899 fans in 2017.

© The Sloan Park average attendance of 15,129 surpassed the previous mark of 15,078 set by the Cubs in 2016.

© Sloan Park holds the single-game Cactus League attendance mark of 15,523 set, March 20, 2016 vs. Kansas City.

The Cubs have drawn 42 crowds of at least 15,000 people to Sloan Park since it opened in 2014. The top 10 crowds are listed below, which are also the top-10 crowds in Cactus League history:

The Cubs return to Mesa for their 40th-consecutive Spring Training, the longest active streak in the Cactus League ... before moving into their new park in 2014, the Cubs had spent the previous 17 Cactus League seasons at HoHoKam Stadium and Fitch Park ... all told, 2018 marks the Cubs' 54th season of Spring Training in Mesa (1952-65, 1979-present).

© In 2010, Mesa voters approved $84 million to construct a baseball stadium, training and practice facility in Mesa, Ariz. for the Chicago Cubs ... the city contributed $15 million for related infrastructure work, and as part of the agreement with the City of Mesa, the Chicago Cubs committed their Spring Training games to the site for the next 30 years.

© Mesa is the second-largest city in the Phoenix metropolitan area and the third-largest city in Arizona ... Mesa is located southeast of Phoenix and Scottsdale.

- With a population of more than 480,000, Mesa ranks as one of the fastest growing cities in the United States (among those with populations of at least 200,000) and the 36th-largest city in the country — bigger than Atlanta and Miami.
